MOVEMENT ON CUBA HAS BEGUN.

Twenty-five Transports, Capable of Carrying 30,000 Men, Now Being Loaded.

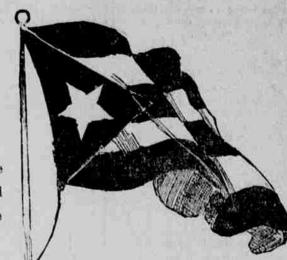

Washington, May 30 .- The military invasion of Cuba has begun.

Unless the orders of the war department miscarried, at an early hour this morning troops that have been gathered at the gulf ports began to break camp and march aboard transports waiting to cary them to the enemy's territory. About twenty-five of these ships, the biggest and fastest that could be obtained suitable for the purpose, have been gathered ready to receive the troops. They will accommodate about thirty thousand men, for in a short voyage like one from the gulf ports to Cuba, it is possible with safety and comfort to carry a much larger number aboard ship than would be advisable in the case of a cruise to the Philippines for instance.

How many troops started this morning, where they took ship, where they are bound, are questions which the directing spirits of the campaign refuse positively to answer. They have no desire that the Spaniards should have opportunity afforded them to gather forces to attack our soldiers as they land. Therefore nothing of the details of the first movement can be learned.

which Admiral Sampson has provided to insure the safety of the troops during the passage across the Piorida Straits.

It is probable that there will be no less than four separate military exceditions and that these will be landed at four different points. Whether Porto Rico is one of these points or not can not be Arrangements have been made to utilize the services of the insurgents to the largest possible extent. The government air ady has sent expeditions to a large number of points on the island and landed arms for the insurgents. Most of the insurgents understand perfectly their object and it was said at the wor department that a sufficient number of the insurgents have been armed to constitute a very effective support for the troops as they land.

A war conference was held at the White House at 3 o'clock today between the president, accompanied the president to Arlington and returned with him to luncheon, was present a part of the time, and Secretary Day, who had just returned to Washington, also dropped in during the conferabout to be put into execution as a result of the definite official information that the Spanish squadron is securely held within Santiage harbor. Naturally those who participated in the conference observed strict reticence regarding it. It was stated, however, in an authoritative quarter, that the discussion had covered the entire naval and military operations with a view of the active movements about to be begun. General Miles brought with him a memorandum showing the exact position of the military forces now concentrated at various points throughout the country, with the number of men at Tampa and other Southern points ready for embarkation. It was also known this morning immediately following the receipt of definite news of the Spanish fleet at Santiago, he had gone to the war department and had issued telegraphic orders putting the troops in motion and thus starting the forward movement of the military arm of the service. Purther than this, those attending the conference would

It was said at the war department that chief reliance would be placed at the outset on the regulars, most of whom are centered in Florida and in such volunteer regiments as were thoroughly equipped teers at Tampa. These include seventeen regiments of regular infantry and fourteen regiments of volunteer infantry, twelve battalions of artillery and five regiments of regular cavalry. The infantry force, regular and volunteer, is about 28,000 men, the cavalry about 4000 and the artillery about 1200. Hew many of these have been ordered dispatched to any given point, or to several points, is not disclosed. as that is a part of the secret campaign plans of the government. Back of this force are other available regiments at Mobile, New Orleans and other points castly accessible to Tampa Still further back is the large volunteer came at Chickamanya, comprising about 40,000 infantry volunteers and three regiments of criffery volunteers.

cently beyond second call constitute still another reserve which, however, is yet to be crasuized and conjuged.

Unless there is a change of programme, General Miles and his entire stah, with the exception of General Gilmore, will leave for the South about 11 tonight. It was in anticipation of this that the final plans were gone over with the president this afternoon. General Miles will not state where his headquarters will be located, and, indeed, it is probable he will move from place to place, as circum-

2500 MEN AND 5000 RIFLES AT CAVITE.

By July 1 He Is Expected to Have 15,000 Men Well Armed and Ready to Begin Operations -- Also Has Several Good Field Pieces.

Manila, May 39, via Hour Kong to Paris, Monday, May 36,-The Philippine insurgents received last Tuesday 2000 Mauser breech-loaders and 20,000 rounds of ammunition and have been busy ever since in getting their men together here. I saw General Aguinaldo today. He told me he had 5900 Mausers captured from the Spaniards, which, with the rifles just received, will enable him to arm a force equal to the detachment of Spaniards now in the province of Cavite. About two miles back of the town of Carite, General Aguinaldo also has five modern breach-loading field pieces with a moderate supply of common field shells and

The men of General Aguinaldo's force are small of stature and look as though they had not had enough to eat for a long time; but they are very wiry and tough. Two of them I noticed were carrying a heavy forge and bellows strung to a pole and two others were similarly laden with a large anvil and four of them carried a bench with two vises. They had taken a field gun from one of the sunken Spanish cruisers and were trying to make it fit for service. showing marvelous patience and perseverance.

There must be something out of the common about their leader. General Aguitanido, for whereas four weeks ago there were not 100 persons in Caville after the Spaniards moved out, there are now more than 2500 men capable of bearing arms, most of whom have assembled since General Aguinaido's arrival eight If they capture a Spanish detachment and arms General Aguinaldo will be limited only by the number of rifles he can get, but many of the native soldiers in Manila will desert to him as soon as he attacks that place. The success of the recent excedition that brought the insurgents a supply of rifles will result in a larger shipment, within the next two weeks, and General Aguitaldo is confident of having 15,000 men in the field before July 1. He Will Personally Supervise the Movement of Troops for Invasion of Cuba.

The party occupied a special train on the Southern railway. No demonstrations of any kind occurred as the distinguished party took its place.

General Miles will proceed directly to Tampa where he will establish temporary headquarters of the army. He will personally direct the movement of the troops and the invasion of Cuba.

General Collazo and Colonel Hernandez of the Cuban junta were of the party.
